

1 Dead, 3 Rescued As Building Collapses In Lagos

By Eugene Agha

Mon, 19 May 2025 5:46:35 WAT

The National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) has confirmed the death of one person and the rescue of three others from the site of a collapsed two-storey building in the Idi-Araba area of Surulere, Lagos.

The building, which was still under construction, collapsed at around 3:50 p.m. on Sunday, causing panic among residents.

- 2025 Hajj: NSCDC officer returns \$505 lost BTA to pilgrim in Yola

- Soldiers neutralise bandits, recover arms in Plateau

Ibrahim Farinloye, the South-West Zonal Coordinator of NEMA, provided an update, confirming that one body had been recovered from the rubble, while three others were rescued alive and are currently receiving treatment in a hospital.

SPONSOR AD

“Rescue operations are still ongoing,” he added.