There is no immediate reaction from the state police command.

In another development, Murish community of Mangu Local Government Area of the state also came under attack last night, but the attackers were said to be repelled by the villagers.

A youth who spoke on the condition of anonymity said the attackers came and were shooting sporadically, but they were able to repel them before they could begin to destroy any property or kill anyone.

He said they were alert in case of any attack or invasion of their communities by marauders.

According to Shohotden Mathias Ibrahim who is Director of Culture Mwaghavul Development Association and Director IDP (Pilot Science) Camp in Mangu, the the people are apprehensive.

He called on the people to go about their business peacefully, urging everyone to remain calm.

Mangu and Bassa LGAs have come under attacks recently.
