Three students from an Islamic school in Kano have been taken to court in Kano for allegedly killing their teacher and removing his body parts.

Prosecuting Counsel, Barrister Maryam Halilu Dantiye, arraigned the suspects on charges of criminal conspiracy, possession of a weapon, and culpable homicide.

The prosecutor said the defendants, Inuwa Muhammad, Abba Rabi'u, and Yahaya Rabi'u, allegedly conspired to label their teacher, Malam Isyaku, a kidnapper.

He said they deceived him, used a local gun, and took one of his eyes and his genital organs.
