

Boko Haram Kills 4 In Adamawa Community

By Amina Abdullahi, Yola

Thu, 25 Sep 2025 6:10:15 WAT

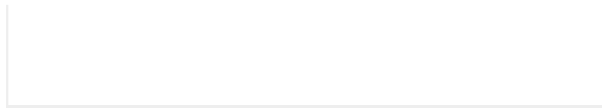

Suspected Boko Haram insurgents have attacked and killed four people, while others sustained injuries in Wagga Mongono community of Madagali Local Government Area of Adamawa during a late-night raid on Tuesday.

Eyewitnesses said that the suspected insurgents stormed the village with guns, shooting sporadically under the cover of darkness before setting shops and a church ablaze.

An eyewitness disclosed to this medium that residents fled into nearby bushes, abandoning their belongings in a desperate bid to stay alive.

SPONSOR AD

Properties worth millions of naira were reportedly destroyed, plunging the community into grief as survivors mourn their loved ones.

- Gombe summit to unlock health value chain – Official
- 7 Things to know about Saudi Arabia's new Grand Mufti

Local sources confirmed that security operatives have since been deployed to restore calm, but authorities have yet to issue an official statement.

Madagali Local Government Area shares boundaries with Borno State.