Houses and other property were razed, even as people fled the Agbadashi area of Nasarawa State

ARTICLE | NOVEMBER 8, 2011 - 1:27PM | BY VINCENT EHIABHI

The Police in Nasarawa State have confirmed the death of two people in a clash yesterday involving supporters of the ruling party in the State, the Congress for Progressive Change (CPC) and those of the People's Democratic Party (PDP).

The fracas occurred in Agbadashi, headquarters of the Ekwe Development Area of Nasarawa State.

As at the time of this report, the State's Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), ASP Cornelius Ocholi, who confirmed the incident, said that he had not received first hand information on the incident, as security operatives who were deployed to the area to quell the situation were yet to send in their reports.

According to witnesses, the CPC supporters were rioting
