

ID	Incident	State	Ref
563	Jos —The Aliade community in Plateau State has cried out over last weekend's killings in their native land in Benue State which they said left about 10 people dead, accusing the mobile police force of carrying out a massacre in the town. The people have therefore called on President Olusegun Obasanjo to declare a state of emergency in the state as well as institute a probe into the actions of the police in what it called the "Aliade Massacre."	Benue	VG 12/12
564	Ayu and Ogbe have called for peaceful dialogue in Benue State.	Benue	VG 12/12
565	Kwara PDP suspends the deputy Chairman for anti-party activities.	Kwara	VG 12/12
566	Former military president Ibrahim Badamosi Babangida has explained why he opted out of the presidential primaries of the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP), in a personal letter to President Olusegun Obasanjo dated December 9, 2006. He said that he was faced with a moral dilemma to vie for the presidential ticket with Governor Umaru Yar'Adua of Katsina State and former National Security Adviser (NSA) General Aliyu Gusau...	National	LD 12/12
567	Two leading opposition parties, the Action Congress (AC) and the All Nigeria Peoples Party (ANPP), will tomorrow sign a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU), signposting the emergence of the biggest opposition party ahead of the 2007 general elections. After the signing of the MoU in Abuja tomorrow, both parties are expected to begin their campaigns in earnest.	National	LD 12/12
568	Governor Rashidi Ladoja was yesterday, at about 6.30pm, reinstated as the executive governor of Oyo State, after what some political analysts have described as "the desecration of the judiciary by the Chief Judge of Oyo State. Justice Iyabo Yarima had pronounced that the status quo should be maintained in spite of a Supreme Court judgement last Thursday nullifying the illegal impeachment of Governor...	Oyo	LD 12/12
569	Action Congress (AC) has asked President Olusegun Obasanjo to resign for presiding over an administration that "provides cover for a continuous and blatant disregard of the constitution and the rule of law." The party specifically made reference to a court injunction yesterday by an Ibadan high court stopping the federal government from implementing the Supreme Court ruling which ...	Oyo	LD 12/12
570	A report from Asaba, Delta State, says that a bomb exploded in the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) state secretariat after the party's gubernatorial primaries last Saturday. The bomb explosion occurred 24 hours after the gubernatorial primaries. According to the report, the explosion caused the death of a policeman who was among those assigned to monitor the gubernatorial primaries in Asaba.	Delta	LD 12/12
571	The Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC), yesterday, said that it has not frozen the accounts of the Director-General of the Dr. Peter Odili Presidential Campaign Organisation, High Chief Alegho Dokpesi. A statement signed by Mr. Osita Nwajah, Head, media and publicity of EFCC said that no account of Chief Dokpesi has been frozen by the commission in relation to any of her investigations.	National	LD 12/12