

CRIME NOTES

BY ALEX OLISE AND ODITA SUNDAY

ADAMAWA

ARRESTED: THE Adamawa Police Command last Thursday arrested 10 members of a vigilance group in Gombi Local Government Area of the state over the killing of a finance clerk with Song local government, Mohammed Danlami Kaku.

ANAMBRA

KILLED: NO fewer than seven persons were last wednesday killed in a renewed clash between security agents and hoodlums in Onitsha. The fresh mayhem started as people were beginning to believe that the intervention of the Federal Government will stall the crisis and as business activities in the city started picking up.

BAYELSA

KIDNAPPED: DESPITE efforts by the government to restore peace in the Niger Delta, four naval officers attached to a rig belonging to an oil company in Sangana, Brass Local Government Area of Bayelsa State, were kidnapped in the early hours of Wednesday by militant youths.

DELTA

ARRESTED: THE police in Delta State last week arrested 11 persons in connection with a mayhem that erupted in Utugba-Ogbe, Kwale last Monday. During the crisis, the palace of the community's monarch was burnt while property whose value is yet to be estimated were destroyed.

ENUGU

ROBBERY: The Institute of Management and Technology (IMT), Enugu, was on Monday raided by people suspected to be armed robbers. The bandits dispossessed hapless students of their belongings.

LAGOS

IMPERSONATION: ON July 4, at about 12.05pm, a team of anti-robbery policemen attached to Isheri Police Station arrested a man dressed in police uniform, one Idajili Olizebi, at CMD Road, Ikosi-Ketu. The man claimed he was from Ikeja Police College. The DPO Isheri sent for the officer in charge of Works who came and denied knowledge of Olizebi. The man stated that he was attached to Works Department, Ogun State Police Command headquarters, Eleweiran, Abeokuta. When the OC workshop, Eleweiran was contacted on telephone, he confirmed that the fake policeman deserted the force about two years ago.

FATAL ACCIDENT: ON July 4, at about 6:45 pm, a report was received at Festac Police Station that a Toyota Camry, Registration No AL 741 FST, driven by one Robert Odion of No. 14, Okongo Lane, Old Ojo road, Agboju, ran over a pedestrian, one Ndubuisi Martins of No. 1 Salami Street, Ijeshatedo, at Sanya Bus Stop, along Oshodi - Apapa expressway. The victim died on the spot.

NABBED: ON June 30, at about 3:35p.m, a team of anti-robbery policemen attached to Festac Area Command, while on patrol along Oshodi-Apapa Expressway, arrested the duo of Luke Owudegbe (of No.21, Idowu Street, Olodi-Apapa) and Obiora, other name and address unknown, with one locally made double barrel gun. Suspects, with one Gideon, now at large, while operating on a motorcycle, attempted to rob a lady who was waiting by the roadside to board a public transport. The suspects have since made useful statement.

MOTOR ACCIDENT: ON June 30, at about 3p.m, information was received at Oshodi Police Station that a trailer truck, registration No. XB 929MNY ran into a motorcycle driven by one Muritala Usman, staff of Lagos State Traffic Management Authority at Charity Bus Stop, along Apapa-Oshodi Expressway. The victim died on the spot.

ROBBERY: ON July 1, at about 03:36 pm, a four-