Accident victim body abandoned on Lagos road

THE body of a young lady, whose age is put between 16 to 18 years, is now lying on the median of Apapa-Oshodi Expressway near The Guardian Newspapers office in Isolo, Lagos.

She was reportedly knocked down and killed on the road on Friday night as she was attempting to escape from hoodlums who were pursuing her.

A witness told The Guardian that the lady was knocked down by a vehicle when she dashed across the highway in a desperate move to escape from hoodlums who wanted to rape her.

Motorists on the road yesterday enjoined officials of the Lagos State Ministry of Health to remove the body before it decomposes and becomes an environmental nuisance.
