

Tanker crushes bus, four persons

LAGOS residents were again thrown into mourning yesterday after a tanker carrying diesel crushed a commercial bus at Oshodi, area of the state, killing four persons on the spot.

The tanker, designed with African Petroleum (AP) colour and marked XA 473 WDE reportedly ran into the commercial bus marked XL 322 LSR, which was conveying passengers from Oshodi to Ikotun-Egbe area of the city.

The Guardian was on the spot and witnessed the dragging-out from the under belly of the trailer, four male victims of the accident, which occurred shortly after Charity Bus Stop.
