

added.

Oyo Speaker Injured In Autocrash, Loses Driver

FROM TUNJI OMOFOYE
(IBADA N)

A driver, Mr. Atoyebi Awolola, attached to the Oyo State House of Assembly's Speaker Mr. Adeolu Adeleke died on Thursday in a ghastly body.

In Kogi

Even if a commodity is imported into this country such commodity must conform to the set standard," he avised.

On the series of seizure simultaneously taking place across the country, NAFDAC's Head of Public Relations, Mr. Jimoh Abubakar said over 100 stores had been closed down while their owners are to be prosecuted.

accident at Adeleye village, near Ibadan.

The speaker and four others sustained injuries in the crash which involved his convoy and an Airforce officer's car.

They were returning from Ogbomoso where the speaker and his entourage went to commission some projects.

An eye witness account said that Governor Rashidi Ladoja's convoy which was also returning from Ogbomoso arrived at the scene of the accident some few minutes after and rescued the victims.

They were later taken to the University College Hospital (UCH), Ibadan for treatment, but the speaker was taken to the Government House Clinic.