

Four feared killed in Badagry bank robbery

By Alex Olise

DARE-DEVIL armed robbers went on rampage in Lagos yesterday when they attacked two branches of old generation banks in Badagry area of the state, killing four persons and emptying the banks' vaults.

The Guardian learnt that three of the dead victims were ~~customers~~ while the fourth slain person was identified as member of the robbery gang felled by police bullet.

A source said a police patrol team, which arrived at the scene late, also suffered casualties as two of them were wounded during a gun duel.

The source added that the robbers had arrived the bank at about 2p.m in a Peugeot 504 tinted glass and a Mitsubishi Bus for the operation.

It was also learnt that the robbers, numbering about 20 and armed with AK47 and pump action automatic rifles, had a field's day during the operation as they succeeded in breaking into the banks' vaults and made away with cash running into millions of naira.
