Five feared dead in Edo road mishaps

From Alemma-Ozioruva Aliu (Benin)

ABOUT five people are being feared dead in two separate accidents that occurred Wednesday evening in Edo State.

According to the Zonal Commander of the Federal Roads Safety Commission (FRSC), Zakari Ndah, four persons lost their lives in one of the accidents involving a Toyota Hiace bus marked XA 905 KLK and a Mercedes Benz 911 with registration number XB 477 JJT. The dead, he said, were three males and a female.

Ndah, while confirming the accident yesterday in Benin, attributed the accident to over-speeding by the two drivers.

He said 14 persons who were injured have been taken to the hospital for treatment while the bodies of the dead have also been moved to the University of Benin Teaching Hospital.

The FRSC chief also confirmed the killing of a commercial motorcycle rider popularly known as Okada, who was riding a cargo bike. He was said to have been hit by a trailer with registration number XJ 151BDJ in Benin. The accident happened at Ramat Park.

The corpse of the bike rider, he said, had been deposited at the FRSC hospital in Benin.
