Two Police Feared Killed In Lagos Bank Robbery

By Alex Olise

DARE devil robbers went on rampage in Lagos yesterday as they attacked a branch of a new generation bank in Ajah, killing two policemen and carting away millions of naira.

In the raid, the robbers were said to have successfully used speedboats to gain entry into the bank.

But sources said the gang had a field day during the operation as they held the bank Manager and customers to ransom.

The shooting which rented the air caused panic within the vicinity as residents scampered for safety to avoid being hit by stray bullets.

Another source said no fewer than seven people were injured during the attack.

However, the police said they were already trailing the bandits

The attack by the bandits came barely 24hours after the state Commissioner of Police Mr. Marvel Akpoyibo warned criminals to flee the metropolis or face the wrath of the force.

Akpoyibo, had told the audience at this year's Crime Reporters Association of Nigeria (CRAN) lecture that the Lagos State Police Command had succeeded in chasing armed robbers out of the metropolis.
