Five die in multiple road accident in Edo

From Alemma-Ozioruva Aliu, Benin

FIVE persons yesterday lost their lives along the Benin - Agbede road in Etsako West local government area of Edo state in a multiple road accident involving two luxury buses and a Toyota Camry car.

The Edo State governor, Comrade Adams Oshiomhole's Personal Assistant, Greg Haruna, his Chief Press Secretary, Chris Nwachuku, two weeks ago lost their lives in the same area in a ghastly motor accident that claimed three other lives.

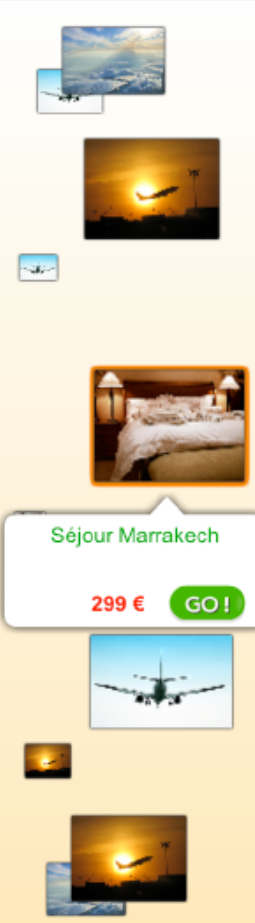

According to the Zonal Co-ordinator of the Federal Roads Safety Commission (FRSC), Zakari Ndah, 107 persons were involved in the accident, while 10 were injured and that the dead included four males and a female child.

The incident, which occurred near Yak Hotel yesterday, according to him, involved two luxurious buses with registration numbers XJ 876 APP and XA 983 NEN and 107 passengers. Nda attributed the cause to loss of control as a result of fatigue on the part of the drivers of the two luxurious buses suspected to be returning from the North to the eastern part of the country.

Ndah said the bodies of the dead accident victims had been deposited at Saint Lazarus hospital morgue in Agbede.
