Eight feared killed as building collapses in Lagos

AT least eight people have been killed in a three-storey building, which collapsed yesterday in Lagos.

Lagos State Director of Fire Services, Adedeyo Aderemi, said 42 people have been rescued from the rubble and are receiving medical attention.

Sunday Pius, a survivor, said he was awoken at around 3.00 a.m. yesterday by a loud sound. He said he rushed outside only to realise the building was falling down, adding that he helped to pull out five bodies.
