Cultists kill poly student

From Tunji Omofoye, Osogbo

A STUDENT of the Osun State Polytechnic, Iree, identified as Adeleye Olanrewaju, has been reportedly shot dead on campus by suspected cultists in a bloody clash between rival cult groups in the institution.

The Guardian learnt that the victim was shot dead very close to the Students' Union Building (SUB) located not too far from the motion ground where students converge to take photographs on the campus.

Sources said the slain student had recently completed his National Diploma (ND) programme and was on campus to collect his results when he was killed.

He was said to have been pursued and killed by the rival cult group that was having a running battle with him since the last academic session.

It was gathered that the assailants finally caught up with him near the gate of the school. A heated argument ensued between both parties, which was said to have degenerated into a scuffle while one of the four assailants reportedly dealt severe matchet blows on the victim before he was shot dead.
