Gunmen attack Zamfara electoral boss' residence, kill two

From Isah Ibrahim, Gusau

A GANG of suspected assassins yesterday attacked the residence of the Chairman, Zamfara State Independent Electoral Commission (ZASIEC), Alhaji Malami Aliyu Yandoto and killed two people, including a police officer attached to him.

Speaking with journalist at his residence in Tsafe where the suspected hired killers attacked his house, Aliyu said the gunmen arrived his residence at about 9:30 p.m. and started shooting.

According to him, he was in his living room when the gunmen entered the residence and killed two people before they met him where he was sitting, shouting and asking about the owner of the house.

He said he later moved out of the living room with a promise to call the owner of the house for them, after spending some minutes with them.

The ZASIEC boss said that from there, he alerted the security agents in the local council headquarters at Tsafe while the gunmen ran away from the premises.
