Cult Clashes Claim Seven In Makurdi

From Simeon Nwakaudu, Makurdi

RESIDENTS of Makurdi, the Benue State capital, are living in fear following dangerous clashes between cult groups in the last three days that have claimed seven lives. The clashes started on Wednesday night between the dominant black and red axe cult groups in Wadata suburb of the town.

The areas where fighting have been fiercest are Jibata and Rice Mill sections of Wadata where rival cultists killed four Muslim youths and a Jukun youth.

Fighting, according to an eye-witness, started when one of the cult groups staged an attack on the home of a rival cultist at Rice Mill, killing him in the process.
