

Monday, September 26, 2011

Mark's convoy in crash, one dies

From John-Abba Ogbodo, Abuja

THE convoy of Senate President David Mark was yesterday involved in a road accident resulting in the death of a driver and injuries to two others.

The Guardian, however, learnt that he was not in the convoy.

A statement by Chief Press Secretary to Mark, Paul Mumeh, said a heavy-duty truck yesterday ran into the convoy at Otukpo, Benue State.

It said: "The dead driver, Inspector Honourable Abah, has been deposited at the Federal Medical Centre, Makurdi, Benue State mortuary while the injured ones, Corporal James Ogwuche and Constable Rasheed Quadri, are receiving medical attention at the same hospital."

According to the statement, "the convoy which was Abuja-bound, had barely departed when the truck rammed into the convoy."

It added: "Officials of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) helped to evacuate the victims to the hospital while the driver of the truck was said to have run into the bush."

Conference on Fed Act