

Violent Clash In Zango Kataf Again

KADUNA

From Saxone Alhaine, Kaduna

LESS than 12 hours after two people were killed and several others injured by gunmen, another disturbance erupted on Friday night in Kurmi Bi village of Zango Kataf local government area, behind the Palace of the Agwam Bajju in Kaduna.

According to report, the disturbance, which started around 10.30 pm saw two people shot. One of the victims was reported to have died instantly, while the other was admitted at St. Louis hospital Zonkwa.

The 12 people who sustained various degrees of injuries during the attack by gunmen on Thursday are still receiving treatment.

As at the time of this report, all the areas leading to the Southern part of Kaduna State have been cordoned off by security men carrying out checks on vehicles heading towards the area.

Meanwhile, relative calm has returned to the troubled areas in the state as leaders and traditional rulers were said to have called for a ceasefire between parties to the crisis.

In a telephone interview, the interim chairman of Zango Kataf local government, Mr. Dominic Yahaya, confirmed the recent attack but said the situation is under control.

The police also said investigations are ongoing on why no arrest has been made.
