

Gunmen kill family of three in Kano

From Murtala Muhammed, Kano

THE Kano State Police command has confirmed another gruesome killing of three members of a family at their Kwanan Masalachi, Naibawa residence in Kano.

The Guardian learnt that the man, his wife and one of their children met an untimely death as they were preparing for church service at exactly 8.30 a.m. The gunmen who arrived on motorcycles laid ambush and opened fire on them as they stepped out of their house.

However, an eyewitness account revealed that one of the children narrowly escaped the attack.

The Kano State Police Public Relations Officer, Musa Magaji Majiya who confirmed the incident to The Guardian hinted that the couple and a child were killed by unknown gunmen. He noted that police had commence an investigation to unravel the perpetrators of the attack.
