

News

24 feared killed in accident, cult attack

From Nwagwara Musa, (Damaturu) and Ann Godwin (Port Harcourt)

TRAGEDY has struck in Yobe and Rivers States, where 24 persons were feared killed in an auto crash and cult clash.

About 18 passengers travelling to Maiduguri and Damaturu in Borno and Yobe states respectively on the Bauchi-Potiskum-Maiduguri road, died when their bus crashed into a parked truck with registration number XRO1 FKJ.

Also, at least six persons are feared dead, including two policemen, when gunmen suspected to be members of a cult group on Tuesday attacked the occupants of a Toyota car along Harbour Road, Port Harcourt. The Guardian learnt that the victims, at about 11pm on Tuesday, drove off from a drinking joint, where they had gone to, unknown to them that they were being trailed by some hoodlums.

Ajimobi pledges better education

Felix Oluwafemi (Media Centre, Lagos)