

Gunmen kill Borno councillor

From Njadvava Musa, Maiduguri

VIOLENCE is yet to abate in Maiduguri, the Borno State capital, as gunmen suspected to be Boko Haram members shot dead a councillor in Maiduguri Metropolitan Council, Alhaji Kalla, at his Lamisula ward residence at 4p.m on Monday. Kalla, who was sworn in with other councillors on Monday, was trailed by the gunmen to his residence, where they fired shots into his head and chest, which made him to slump before his wife and children. According to a resident and relation to Kalla, three gunmen came to the house in the afternoon and demanded to see the councillor and when he showed up, they shot him dead. It was also learnt that the residence of the councillor has been cordoned by men of the Joint Task Force (JTF), while the road leading there was also closed to prevent further attack and killing in the area. Spokesman of the Borno State Police Command, Gideon Jibrin, confirmed the incident.

Ekiti Assembly dissolves committees

From Muyiwa Adeyemi, Ado Ekiti

THE Ekiti State House of Assembly has dissolved all standing committees in its

Governor Patrick S. Doka

Stakeholders

By Kabir

IF, in the past few years, the billions of dollars have accumulated relative to the main