

Robbery gang kills police inspector, carts away arms

From Anietie Akpan, Calabar

A POLICE Inspector, Lehman Akpan was in the early hours of Wednesday killed by a two-man armed robbery gang that robbed residents at 55 IBB Way, by Ekong Ita in Calabar.

Police sources said the robbers also made away with the AK 47 rifle and double magazine containing 60 rounds of bullet of the slain policeman and huge sums of money robbed from the residents of the area.

The Guardian gathered that when the robbers had arrived, they went straight to a lady who was doing late night sewing to meet up with her customers demand and robbed her of all the money in her possession.

The robbers left only to return moments later to compel the lady to take her to the husband's room where they fired shots and also robbed him of the money in his possession.

Govt sets target for new NHIS, NPHCDA, other boards