

Boko Haram kills 10 soldiers in Adamawa

From Emmanuel Ande, Yola

BARELY two weeks after suspected Boko Haram members stormed a Catholic church in Madagali Local Council Area of Adamawa State and killed over 30 worshipers, about 10 soldiers were yesterday feared slain in an ambush by suspected members of the sect, in the border town of Izhe in Madagali council of the state.

A top military officer who spoke to reporters on condition of anonymity confirmed the attack, but declined to disclose the number of soldiers killed.

He said that the 23 Armoured Brigade Yola, Commander Brigadier-General Rogers Ibe Nicholas, was not on around to comment on the incident.

He added, "I am not the right person to speak on this issue, my commander went to Gurin on an official assignment, when he returns you people can come and see him tomorrow [today]."

The officer said that the soldiers were killed when they engaged the insurgents in a gun battle when the bandits attempted to attack a village.

Confirming the incident,

Rtd) in a echi (right)

ery ensing and

Dr. Steve d that the regulation ne existing