

Auto Crash Claims Nine Lives In Jigawa

From John Akubo, Dutse

MEN of the Nigeria Civil and Security Defense Corps (NSCDC) were involved in a rescue operation yesterday when an auto crash claimed the lives of nine persons in Gamji-Gyedi village, seven kilometres to Ringim LGA of Jigawa State.

The accident occurred following a head-on collision between two buses.

The commandant of the NSCDC, Muhammad Gidado, told The Guardian that the incident occurred close to a fuel vendor. He said that upon impact, the vehicles hit some gallons filled with petrol. He said the buses burst into flames, causing six passengers to be burnt beyond recognition. Three other victims died in a hospital.

The commandant warned drivers to avoid over speeding, adding that people should also avoid placing inflammables at roadsides.
