

Abducted Ebonyi ex-official found dead

about 15 hours ago

Recommend { 4

Tweet { 0

THE kidnapped former Coordinator of Okposi Development Centre, Ebonyi State, Hon. Ihebunandu Okorie, has been found dead in a forest located at the hilly part of Ekoli Edda in Afikpo South Local Council of the state. Okorie was killed by his abductors, a source close to the family, who pleaded anonymity said yesterday.

According to the source, the former coordinator's body was found in the forest in a pool of blood.

It will be recalled that Okorie was abducted inside the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Obioha Okposi by gunmen after attending a church service.

Reacting to the incident, Ebonyi State Police spokesman, ASP Chris Anyanwu, told journalists that the command would brief the press on the details of the incident today.

The state police command had told newsmen that the command was tracking the kidnappers, adding that they have located the site where the vehicle used for the kidnap was abandoned.

Comments

Add a comment...

☒ Also post on Facebook

Posting as Vitus Ukoji (Not you?)

Comment

Custom Daniel · Follow · Works at NCS - National Citizen Service
THE NIGERIA CUSTOM AUCTION MARKET.
We sell all kinds of tokunbo