

Robbers kill four policemen, two others in Port Harcourt

From Kelvin Ebiri, Port Harcourt

ARMED robbers yesterday shot and killed four policemen, the driver and a regional manager of a new generation bank in Port Harcourt.

The Guardian gathered that the armed robbers laid ambush for the policemen and the bank manager at about 9:45 a.m. yesterday at the Igwuruta roundabout in Obio/Akpor Local Council of Rivers State and carted away undisclosed amount of money.

NBM holds convention/lecture

THE Neo-Black Movement of Africa (NBM) worldwide holds its 36th and 10th annual convention/lecture with theme, "Consolidation Through Partnership," today at Krisdera Hotel Resort, Omoku, Port Harcourt, Rivers State, according to a statement by the group's National Head, Mr. Bemigho Eyeoyibo.

Senate's panel clears NNPC of fraud charge

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 2

(Nine hundred and Twenty Eight million, one hundred and eighty seven thousand, two hundred and thirty eight US dollars only) and not the widely acclaimed $20 billion or the $49.8 billion by Sanusi.

"Therefore, NNPC should remit the balance of $218,069,354.32 million to the federation account."

Inter-agencies reconciliation meetings between sensitive economic institutions such as Ministry of Finance three other engineering for the pur or engineer- ent and vices con- natural gas s on Bonny from 1995 to venture com- proper pay- 0 million in ard of these The African k Group had million in fi- overall con- $6 billion.

