CONDOLENCE messages have continued to pour in for Nollywood actor Clems Onyeka who was killed by a stray bullet around a robbery scene in Asaba, Delta State on Tuesday. Onyeka, 37, was reportedly shot along Summit Express, Asaba, Delta State during a shoot out between the police and armed robbers who had laid siege on a new generation bank. He reportedly died on the spot. The Nigerian Film Corporation has reacted to the death. In a statement in Jos, signed by Brian Etuk the Corporation's Head of Public Affairs, the NFC described the death of Clems Onyeka's as shocking, untimely, and a great loss to the film Industry. According to Etuk, NFC's Managing Director Dr. Danjuma Dadu is deeply saddened by the untimely death of Onyeka. The NFC boss commiserated with the family of Clems Onyeka, just as he also condoled with all film practitioners over this sudden loss, especially the leadership and members of the Actors Guild of Nigeria (AGN). He described the actor's death as pathetic and unfortunate. Dadu assures that the NFC will continue to positively engage all film practitioners and stakeholders in the country to imbibe best global practices in the art and business of filmmaking, the statement added.
