OOU Female Student Killed In Car Accident

THE family of Azuh has been thrown into mourning following the death of their beautiful daughter, Augusta Chinonso Azuh.

We gathered that the 22-year-old final year student of Olabisi Onabanjo university was killed in an automobile accident over the weekend. She was pronounced dead on the way to the hospital.

We also gathered that the deceased is a younger sister to International magazine publisher, Azuh Arinze.

We commiserate with the family of Azuh on the untimely death of their daughter, urging them to take solace in God for the unquantifiable loss.

The loss of a loved one is always an unfathomable tragedy, which is compounded when such death occurs at an unripe age. We pray that God will grant repose to the soul of the Boko Haram stronghold, village, Damboa local gov. The Commissioner for Information, Bulama, disclosed this to the public on Wednesday, April 29.

"These girls and women rescued as the Chibok girls and were liberating them, hoping that they would be liberated. Though everyone had thought because of the hype surrounding them, we should not lose sight of the Chibok girls and those who hope would be liberated since they were still in the hands of the Boko Haram. Up to the time the 293 girls were rescued, we were still waiting for them so that we can begin the process of integrating them back into the society. The Commissioner's statement is a relief. The Army spokesman, Sani Usman, said the young women rescued
