Suspected Fraudster Dies In EFCC Custody

From Alifa Daniel, Abuja

A SUSPECTED fraudster, Desmond Nunugwo, has died in the custody of the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC) eight hours after his arrest.

The suspect was being investigated over an alleged N91 million fraud.

A statement from the EFCC yesterday reads: "Desmond Nunugwo, a suspect under investigation by the EFCC, passed away today, June 10, 2016 few hours after he was taken into custody. His demise was confirmed at the hospital where he was rushed after he suddenly took ill.

"Late Nunugwu allegedly fraudulently obtained N91 million from an acquaintance after he tricked her into believing that he had high net worth business associates in Dubai, United Arab Emirates who were at the verge of buying Nikon Insurance and convinced her of their disposition to help her stock fish business.

"Consequently, she wired N91 million into
