

Man, his wife, son missing as two boats collide

THE police in Lagos yesterday declared missing a father, mother and son after two boats collided in Badagry area of the state. A statement by the police spokesperson in Lagos, DSP Dolapo Badmos, said the actual number of passengers aboard the ill-fated boats was yet to be ascertained.

"At about 8:30p.m. on Wednesday, a canoe with passengers that took off from Pathfinder Jetty on Badagry Marina heading to Gberefu Beach collided with another fibre boat coming from Iyafin area in Badagry.

"The two boats capsized. While the two operators were safe, the passengers are yet to be recovered. Effort is, however, ongoing with local divers to recover the passengers.

"While the case is under investigation, three persons suspected to be father, mother and son are suspected to be among the missing passengers," Badmos said.
