

Meanwhile, in his reaction to the killing of about 20 persons in Buruku and Ipav in Gboko local council of Benue State by suspected herdsmen at the weekend, Governor Samuel Ortom has directed security agents to begin their evacuation from the state.

About six persons were feared killed in Ipav district of Gboko local council on Monday while another 10 lost their lives last weekend at Buruku council.