

Delta

State.

A senior police personnel at the Ughelli Police Station said investigation was on going. However, he confided that “on the spot assessment” appeared to indicate that it was a violent robbery incident as the tricycle and the deceased’s personal effects were taken away.

The deceased’s body was later removed to the mortuary by family members assisted by the police and vigilance group members.