One of the deceased female was found dead lying in the lobby, while the other was lying down on the bed with her shoes on.

According to an eyewitness, it was the brothers of the deceased male that returned home from a party that raised the alarm when he found the bodies.

The bodies of the deceased were later taken to the morgue by policemen from Etete Police Division. The generating set from which the fume emerged was found in the kitchen of the house.

Spokesman for the Edo State Police Command, DSP Moses Nkombe, confirmed the incident and said investigation would unravel what caused the death. He said it was a case of sudden and natural death.

“Until doctors’ report comes out, it is like they died of generator fume. One of the occupants of the room died. The flat is occupied by three guys. The two senior ones went to a party and when they returned, they saw that the door was locked.
