

Also, Chairman of Oyigbo Council, Chisom Gbali, who confirmed the incident, said suspected farmers killed the herdsman yesterday.

He has, therefore, called on security agencies to improve security in the area, following rumours that the herdsmen were planning a reprisal attack on the local farmers.