

Another woman murdered, dumped by Lagos roadside

BARELY 48 hours after an unidentified young girl was found dead and dumped in a street corner in the Ikotun area of Lagos State, another victim has been discovered in a similar situation in the same area.

The new body was discovered by residents on Monday morning at Balogun Street, off Ikotun-Igando road. The identity of the victim was not known as residents said she was not living in the area.

Residents said the striking thing about the two victims was that their lifeless bodies were found few metres to a hotel in the two areas. The earlier body was found on Saturday morning at Adedayo Adedeji Street, by Church bus-stop in Abaranje area of Ikotun.

Others believed she must have been murdered elsewhere and secretly dumped there. They however called for security operatives to keep close watch over the activities of some hotel operators in the area as it is becoming too rampant.
