• 'Summit will tackle security challenges'

At least 37 people are feared killed and many others seriously injured in fresh crisis that broke out in Kajuru Local Government

Area in Southern Kaduna. The latest trouble was said to have started since Sunday when some Fulani youths allegedly went to a village at Ugwan Uka to avenge the killing of their kinsman. Kajuru Local Government is about 50 kilometres from the state capital, Kaduna. The fresh killings show that the efforts by the government at the state and federal levels to check violence have not been effective.

The umbrella body of the Fulani, the Miyetti Allah Cereals Producers and Breeders Association of Nigeria on Saturday announced that four of its members were killed by youths.
