

Troops Rescue Injured B'Haram Terrorist

From Segun Olaniyi, Abuja

TROOPS of Operation Lafiya Dole of the Nigerian Army in strict adherence to Rules of Engagement and international conventions on armed conflict, rescued an injured Boko Haram terrorist, identified as Mustapha Abba.

A statement by Army spokesman, Brig. Gen. Sani Kukasheka Usman, in Abuja, yesterday said Abba was captured during a counter attack operation launched by the troops following an attack at their location.

He noted that his colleagues abandoned him during a gun battle with the troops in one of the remote Forward Operating Bases in Ngala council area.

Usman said Abba narrated how eight of his Boko Haram colleagues were killed by the troops and recovered three AK 47 rifles, two AK 47 magazines, two FN rifle magazines and three PKM link belts from them.
