

Meanwhile, tragedy struck yesterday in Ondo as a police inspector attached to the state command, Abraham Aro, committed suicide after killing his superior for unknown reasons.

Aro, who allegedly shot the Superintendent of Police (SP) and Divisional Crime Officer, simply identified as Timothy to death at the Police Divisional Headquarters, Kajola, in Odigbo council, was said to have jumped into a well.

As at press time, however, no police source could ascertain the cause of Timothy's killing by the junior officer.

It was, however, gathered that the corpses of the deceased had been deposited at the Ore General Hospital morgue after the Area Police Commander led a team of police officers to the scene of the crime.

Meanwhile, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Femi Joseph, confirmed the report, saying investigation has commenced on the incident and the mystery would soon be unraveled.
