

Breaking News: Dapchi girls freed by abductors

Damaged cars from USA

auctionexport.com

Over 200,000 cars for sale.
Delivery to Lagos and Tema

Metro

At security parley, Obaseki okays 36 patrol vehicles to secure Edo State

By Alemma-Ozioruva Aliu,

Benin City

21 March 2018 | 6:06 am

Omoyemi Akerele: Redefining Nigerian Fashion Industry

WHO warns Nigeria, 15 other African countries of listeriosis outbreak

🕒 1 hour ago

🔗 Read More

Governor Godwin Obaseki of Edo State

Governor Godwin Obaseki has approved the deployment of 36 patrol vehicles to effectively secure all of the 18 council areas of Edo State.

At a stakeholders' meeting yesterday in Uromi, headquarters of Esan North East Local Council where five persons were lost to herdsmen's attacks at the weekend, the governor reiterated his earlier directive to security agencies to apprehend the assailants within seven days.

Accompanied by the Secretary to State Government (SSG), Osarodion Ogie, Chief of Staff, Government House, Taiwo Akerele and other top government officials, Obaseki

Are you getting underpaid?

Latest

Tonga bans girls playing rugby

🕒 24 mins ago

Mr P Releases Video For "I Eyes"

🕒 32 mins ago

Pogba tantalises with Neymar

Advertisement

Army yet to confirm report of freed Dapchi schoolgirls

1 hour ago

Read More

The fallen citizens were 17-year-old undergraduate of the state-owned Ambrose Alli University (AAU), Ekpoma, Akhere Ojierakhi; a toddler and a secondary school student, Victor Momodu.

He pledged support to the families in their struggle to overcome the losses.

The visit was followed by a town hall security meeting in Ubiaja where the governor unveiled new measures to tackle the attacks.

The measures, according to him, include the overhaul of Operation Thunderstorm, the special taskforce, for fighting of violent crimes in the state.

A

ddressing elders from the senatorial district as well as women and representatives of the Hausa community and youths, Obaseki stated: “We will apprehend the people who committed this heinous crime and we shall prosecute them and bring them to justice.

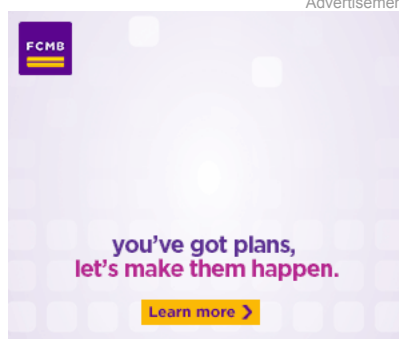

“We are also deploying economic development initiatives to combat this crisis. With these initiatives that I have for this state and Esan land, I cannot allow these atrocious acts to persist.”

Dapchi girls freed by abductors

2 hours ago

Read More

Advertisement

In this article:

Edo

Governor Godwin Obaseki

Ibrahim Idris

No Comments yet

Nigerians Flock Online After Iraqi Wins Massive US Lottery

Sponsored Links

Army yet to confirm report of freed Dapchi schoolgirls

1 hour ago

Contributors

SARAT

About Kanc polyg

VICTO

NYSO innov accel

OLU Y

The i God I

Editor's Pick

1 NNPC to work with exploration in Ch

An IGP Nigeria do