

Father, Two Sons Arrested Over Alleged Killing Of Another Son, Digging Grave Inside Room To Bury Body

THE Jigawa State Police Command, yesterday, said it has arrested a father and two of his sons over death of another son in Jahun Council of the state.

The Command spokesman, Abdu Jinjiri, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Dutse, the state capital, that about 1.25pm on November 29, the Police received a report from Kamai village in Jahun town that one Hayatu Mamman, 22, was found dead at about 1a.m., "killed in cold blood inside his bedroom by unknown person or persons.

"That they used a knife and slit the deceased on his neck," Jinjiri said.

He explained that upon receipt of the report, the Police moved to the scene immediately and discovered that the father of the deceased and two of his sons were found to have dug a grave inside the room and were attempting to bury the body.

The spokesman added that both the father and the two sons were arrested, while the body was taken to Jahun General Hospital for medical examination, adding: "A knife and clothes were recovered from the deceased's room."

He stated that the body of the deceased was later released to his relatives for burial, while the case was under investigation.
