

Also, gunmen were said to have trailed and killed the Community Development Committee Chairman of Rumuodogo 1, Community, in Emohua Local Government Area of the State, Mr. Eze-otto Ishmael.

Narating the ordeal, one of the children of the late CDC chairman, Ovundah Eze, said his father was killed in Rumuaghorlu Community, at about 7pm by unknown gunmen while returning home.

He noted that his late father received several threat calls from cult groups in Emuoha, adding that his late father reported the threats to security agencies but no action was taken.

Ovundah said, the boys who killed his father came in a Toyota Camry car and fully armed.

He added that the bandits after killing their father also chased him (Ovunda) and his other brother, adding that they narrowly escaped death.

Efforts to reach the State Police Public Relations Officer, Nnamdi Omoni was futile as his phones rang severally without response and text message sent to him was ignored.
