

Imo Police Raid Kidnappers' Den, Kill Three Suspects, Rescue Seven Victims

From Charles Ogugbuaja, Owerri

OPERATIVES of the Imo Police Command, code-named Operation Puff Adder, led by the state Commissioner of Police, Rabiuladodo, at the weekend, stormed the forest where kidnappers usually dump their victims in Lile, Ohaji/Egbema Local Council of the state, killing three of them. Seven persons were rescued from captivity.

A statement issued by the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Orlando Godson Ikeokwu, yesterday, said some arms were recovered as exhibits.

The statement read: "Today, the Commissioner of Police in Imo State, in company of operational commanders, including the DC Operations, visited Lile forest in Ohaji/Egbema Local Council, where three kidnappers were shot dead, and seven victims rescued, with many exhibits recovered.

Plans To Eliminate Malaria