

Five Wedding Guests Die In Ekiti

By Ayodele Afolabi, Ado-Ekiti

ABOUT five wedding guests, yesterday, lost their lives in a motor accident on the Ikere-Ado Road in Ekiti State. Several others also sustained injuries in the accident. The accident involving an 18-seater bus with registration number Ekiti LG 05 MUE was said to belong to Ekiti State Market women.

Eyewitnesses confirmed that the victims were returning from a wedding reception when the tragedy occurred.

An eyewitness said: "The vehicle was speeding and summersaulted several times immediately the driver lost control. I counted at least 10 bodies on the road before the arrival of officials of Federal Road Safety Corps."

The Police Public Relations

described as a performer.

Officer, Ekiti State Command, Caleb Ikechukwu, who confirmed the accident, said it was a lone fatal accident.

He also said the injured persons had been moved to hospital for treatment while the dead to the morgue.

Anglican Church: CAN Commends El Dufai For Ministry