

Police confirm one dead, six others kidnapped in Sokoto

By NAN

09 March 2020 | 3:06 pm

Virus deaths soar in Italy, US deploys national guard

3 hours ago

The Sokoto State Police Command on Monday said one person was killed and six others kidnapped by unknown gunmen in three communities in Shagari Local Government Area of the state.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Muhammad Sadiq, told newsmen in Sokoto that the incident occurred about 3:30 a.m on Monday at Gidan Shikkau, Gidan Tsamiya, and Kajiji communities.

Sadiq said no arrest had been made, but a team of policemen was on the trail of the gunmen.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that the communities are about 57 Kilometres from Sokoto.

Kwankwaso claims Buhari ordered Sanusi's dethronement

3 hours ago

A source, who pleaded anonymity, told NAN that the bandits, fired gunshots indiscriminately, killing one person and abducting six others to an unknown destination.

A member, Sokoto State House of Assembly, Mr Maidawa Alhaji-Kajiji (APC-Shagari), condoled with the family of the deceased and expressed sympathy for the kidnapped victims.

Nigeria consulate suspends emergency passport services

2 hours ago

