Four members of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC), who were abducted by bandits on Monday night in Katsina, have been rescued by the police at Doka Forest in Faskari council area of the state.

Six of the hoodlums lost their lives in the gun duel while two rifles and several ammunition were recovered during the confrontation that happened on Wednesday morning. The exercise also led to the arrest of a bandit.

It was learnt that the police were led to the criminals' hideout by repentant bandits. Commending the security agents for the rescue, the governor warned against night trips, especially on roads known to have security challenges during odd hours.

The meeting saw the state government donating N100, 000 each to the prospective corps members. They thereafter opted to observe their service year in Katsina instead of Zamfara.
