

ANOTHER set of gunmen invaded the house of former director of works at Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University (ATBU), Bauchi State, killed him and took away his car.

The state's police command said the gunmen that killed Hassan Jama'are were yet to be identified.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Ahmed Wakil, told journalists that the late Jama'are was murdered about 10p.m. on Sunday at Tudun Salmanu in Bauchi metropolis.

Wakil explained that the assailants had trailed the victim to his house and shot him pointblank when he was about to open the gate to his house, and took his Honda Accord car away.

The victim, who reportedly crawled into his house, was confirmed dead by doctors when he was rushed to the hospital.
