

Lagos-bound truck somersaults in Niger killing 23, injuring 22 — Police

By NAN

28 December 2020 | 6:05 pm

Biden, Trump descend on Georgia for Senate runoff rallies

3 hours ago

Anti-US chants as Iraqis mourn commanders killed a year ago

2 hours ago

Police arrest four men for allegedly gang raping 2 minors in Yobe

2 hours ago

The Police Command in Niger says 23 persons lost their lives when a truck fully loaded with dozens of cows and 45 persons, skidded off the road and somersaulted into a bush.

The accident occurred at about 0500 hours along Bokani -Makera road in Mokwa Local Government Area of the state, according to the Commissioner of Police, Mr Adamu Usman, who confirmed the accident to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Minna, on Monday.

Usman said the truck, with registration Number BBJ 666 XA, was coming from Dadin Kowa, in Kebbi state, enroute to Lagos when the incident occurred, explaining that the corpses of the deceased, and the other 22 who sustained various degree of injuries, had been conveyed to the Mokwa General Hospital for postmortem and treatment respectively.

Usman, who attributed the accident to loss of control by the driver, lamented the failure of drivers to obey traffic rules and regulations.

In this article:

Lagos

Niger

police

Receive News Alerts on Whatsapp: +2348136370421

No comments yet

