TERRORISTS have attacked Kajuru and Igabi councils of Kaduna State and killed seven persons, the Commissioner for Internal Security and Home Affairs, Samuel Aruwan, has said.

Aruwan stated yesterday, bandits attacked Kajinjiri village in Igabi and killed two residents identified as Ibrahim Rabi'u and Abdulrahman Mohammad, while one person sustained gunshot injury.

He also said that two locals, identified as Alhaji Ibrahim Iro and Muhammadu Rabi'u, were killed in Igabi.

In a separate incident, the commissioner added, gunmen invaded Kutura station in Kajuru and killed three residents, identified as Michael Shadari, Clement Bili and Danlami Shaban.

"Governor Nasir el-Rufai noted the reports with sadness and condoled the families of those killed, while offering prayers for the repose of their souls. He also wished the injured victim from Kajinjiri village quick recovery."

In another development, the authorities of Kebbi State University (KSU), Aliero, has ordered the indefinite closure of the institution, following the murder of a 400-Level Biochemistry student, Shamsudeen Sale, in a mob action.

Confirming this to The Guardian in Birnin Kebbi, spokesperson of the university, Hussaini Zuru, said the murder caused the students to go on rampage, blocking the highway leading to Sokoto State.

Zuru said Sale was murdered by some residents of Aliero town when he bought a phone and paid through bank transfer but the sellers could not get notification immediately.

The deceased had gone back to the seller to sort out the issue when the people around started calling him a thief, triggering the mob action that led to his death.

When contacted, the image-maker of Kebbi police command, DSP Nafiu Abubakar, confirmed the incident, but said he was yet to get details.
